Dear Ananyas'

Thank you for registering for our ANANYA Civil Engineering Employability Skilling Training, which will begin on Monday, 19th August 2024.

The training will run for one month, with one session per week. This will be in the evening from 7 pm to 8.30 pm. We may add a few more weeks if required. We expect all participants to attend every session without fail. You will receive session details at least a week in advance.

To make the most of this opportunity, we kindly request that you attend each session with your video on and actively participate. The more interactive the session, the more you will gain in terms of skill development. At the end of the training, we will issue Certificates of Participation and Merit, based on your involvement and validated learnings during the sessions.

Important: Project Opportunities

After the training, we will be offering both online and onsite project opportunities for those who volunteer. If you are interested in being considered for these projects, please fill out the form linked below by Sunday, 12 noon. Only those who complete the form will be considered for the projects, so be sure to fill it out accurately.
